

I am strongly opposed to loosening any current regulations that prevent greater consolidation of media ownership, and I am very concerned that this not be rammed through without public discussion and voting in Congress!